2. The Event is a hackathon workshop aimed at developing computational and statistical models of the brain and behaviour, as well as exploring other areas of computational neuroscience and its applications.
3. Detailed information about the Event and program can be found on the website of the Event: <https://brainhackwarsaw.fuw.edu.pl/> ("Event Website").
4. The event takes place in designated parts of the University of Warsaw (hereinafter referred to as: "UW"): in the organisational unit - Faculty of Physics, University of Warsaw, Poland; Ul. Ludwika Pasteura 5, 02-093 Warszawa
5. The official organiser of the Event (hereinafter referred to as: "the Organising Committee") is considered as the Neuroinformatics Student Club operating at the Faculty of Physics, University of Warsaw, Poland; Ul. Ludwika Pasteura 5, 02-093 Warszawa.
6. The University of Warsaw reserves the right to change the unit referred to in sec. 4 above with prior notification made via the Event Website, referred to in sec. 3 above.
7. During the Event, guests will be presented with forms of activity prepared for them, which will be defined by a separate schedule. The schedule will be posted on the Event Website.

§ 2 Registration of participation in the Event

2.1 Registration of Team Leaders

1. A Team Leader is a person who registers a project during the project registration and then leads a team of Participants executing this project.
2. Participation in the Event is free of charge for Team Leaders, speakers, and partners of the Event. Moreover, the Event Organising committee provides pre-paid accommodation near UW for Team Leaders.
3. Active participation in the Event is possible based on project registration provided on the Event website. When registering for the Event, the Team Leader confirms that they have read and accepted the rules of participation in the Event stated in the Terms & Conditions and provided the necessary information.

4. Brainhack Organising Committee keeps the right to reject a project when it may be considered discrimination towards some groups, dangerous, or/and having no educational or scientific value. Projects are evaluated by the Advisory Boards listed on the Event website.
5. The Team Leader acquires the right to participate in the Event at the time of confirming their application and announcing the project on the Event website.
6. Only the Organising Committee has the right to disband group projects. In case of the need to disband a project group the Team Leader is obliged to inform the Organizing Committee.

2.2 Registration of Participants

1. A Participant is a person who registers at the participant's registration and then participates in the Event developing a project, excluding Team Leaders.
2. Participation in the Event is paid for Participants. The entry fee will be provided on the Event website. Possible methods and details of payment will be provided when the registration starts.
3. Participation in the Event is possible based on prior registration provided on the Event website. When registering for the Event, the Participant confirms that they have read and accepted the rules of participation in the Event stated in the Terms & Conditions.
4. During the registration, Participants choose three different projects of their choice to participate in. The Organising Committee assigns the Participant to the most suitable project based on the skills and experience provided in the registration form. In case of choosing less than three different projects, The Organising Committee will contact Participants asking them to fill out the registration form once again.
6. The Participant acquires the right to participate in the Event at the time of receiving the confirmation of registration and paying the entry fee.
7. Confirmation of registration will be sent only to a selected number of candidates, who will be selected by the Organising Committee, based on their qualifications. Registration is not equivalent to participation.
8. Participants are allowed to take part in the event virtually, however in that case the entry fee will not be reimbursed or reduced.

2.3 Deadlines and general provisions

1. Registration takes place by providing the name, surname, e-mail address, and information required to assign/register the project. The registration is carried out through the registration form available on the Event Website.
2. The Organiser is not responsible for any incorrect or untrue data provided by the Participant when registering for participation in the Event.

3. Project registration starts on 16.01.2025 and ends on 30.01.2025. The announcement of accepted projects takes place on 9.02.2025. Participant registration starts on 10.02.2025 and ends on 28.02.2025.

4. Dates given in sec. 3 might be prolonged by a week if the number of applications is smaller than expected.

§ 3 Resignation from participation in Event

1. The Team Leader might submit a resignation from participation before the official announcement of accepted projects. After that, every unexpected reason for deleting an announced project will be considered individually by the organising committee of the Event.

2. In case of cancelling a project after it is announced, all of the Participants assigned to this project are transferred to the next project of their choice. If the cancelled project, to which the Participant had been assigned, was chosen as third choice during registration, such cases will be considered individually by the Organizing Committee.

3. The Participant might submit a resignation from participation before paying the entry fee. After that, refunds for cancelling participation are not provided.

4. The only instance in which a refund may be provided is when the project to which the Participant was assigned was cancelled due to unexpected reasons and it is not possible to assign them to a different project chosen during the registration.

§ 4 Rules for participation in Event

1. Participants accept the established rules for the course of the Event and its program and undertake not to influence its change and not to disrupt the course of the Event.

2. Before entering the Event, the participant is obliged to take part in activities related to the confirmation of prior registration.

3. The Organising Committee plans to carry out a photo report of the Event for the purposes of documentation, information (available on the Event Website and other websites of the University of Warsaw with information about the Event and its course), promotional (e.g. on the Event Website and other websites of the University of Warsaw, profiles of the University of Warsaw in social media) and archiving (in the field of recordings and photo coverage).

4. By participating in the Event, the Participant agrees to the recording and use of their image for the purposes indicated in section 3 above, without the right to remuneration for the above. The consent covers the dissemination by the Organising Committee of the image recorded in connection with participation in the Event by: recording, reproduction using any techniques, dissemination, use, marketing, lending, public performance, insertion, display, reproduction, broadcasting, public sharing, archiving, in including, in particular, on the University of
